1. private food stores had recently been permitted to open up in Bucharest. A small number of private vegetable stores had been allowed to open in Bucharest during the Fourth World Youth Festival in August 1953, however, this recent move was the result of a decision by Constantin Doncea in December 1953. Doncea is a member of the Executive Committee of the Bucharest City Peoples Council. 25X1
2. Food is sold by the peasants to the private stores who resell for very high prices. there is an illegal arrangement between the private stores and the Comaliment stores, whereby the manager of a Comaliment store sells them food and receives a kickback. 25X1
